

To the Board of Directors
Galatoire's Restaurant

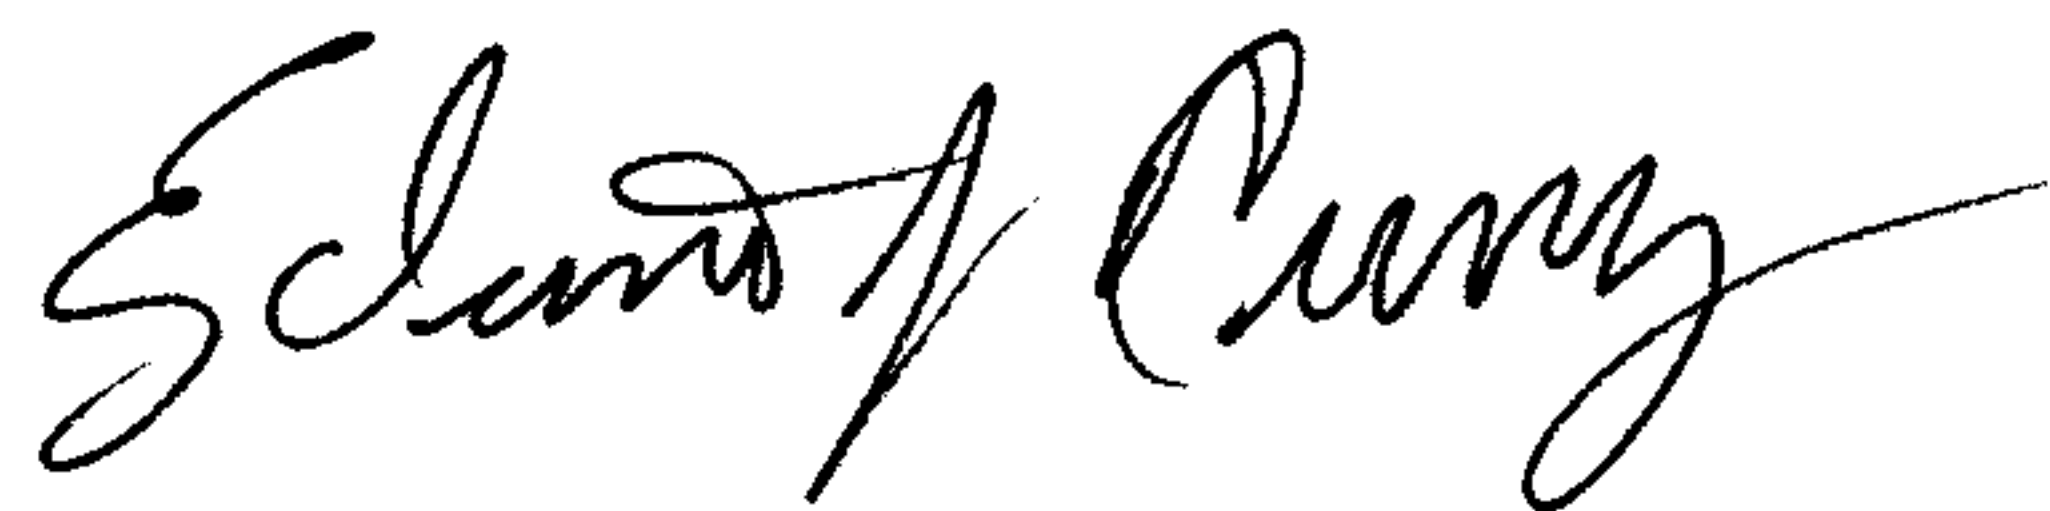

Dear Sirs:

Realizing that I, and many fellow diners, are not familiar with all the details of Gilberto's dismissal from the restaurant, we do ask that the situation be look at with Gilberto's personality in mind.

Gilberto is a wonderful waiter and a kind soul who also has a strong and somewhat sassy sense of humor. It seems that humor got out of hand and some form of discipline is required. Our apologies to the offended person from whom we ask forgiveness for Gilberto. Please take into consideration that Gilberto is one of those personalities, one of those effects if you will, that helps to make Galatoire's so very unique.

World class dining is something many of us take pleasure in and Galatoire's is without peer in New Orleans.

Thank you for your consideration,
