Dear Dr. Holditch,

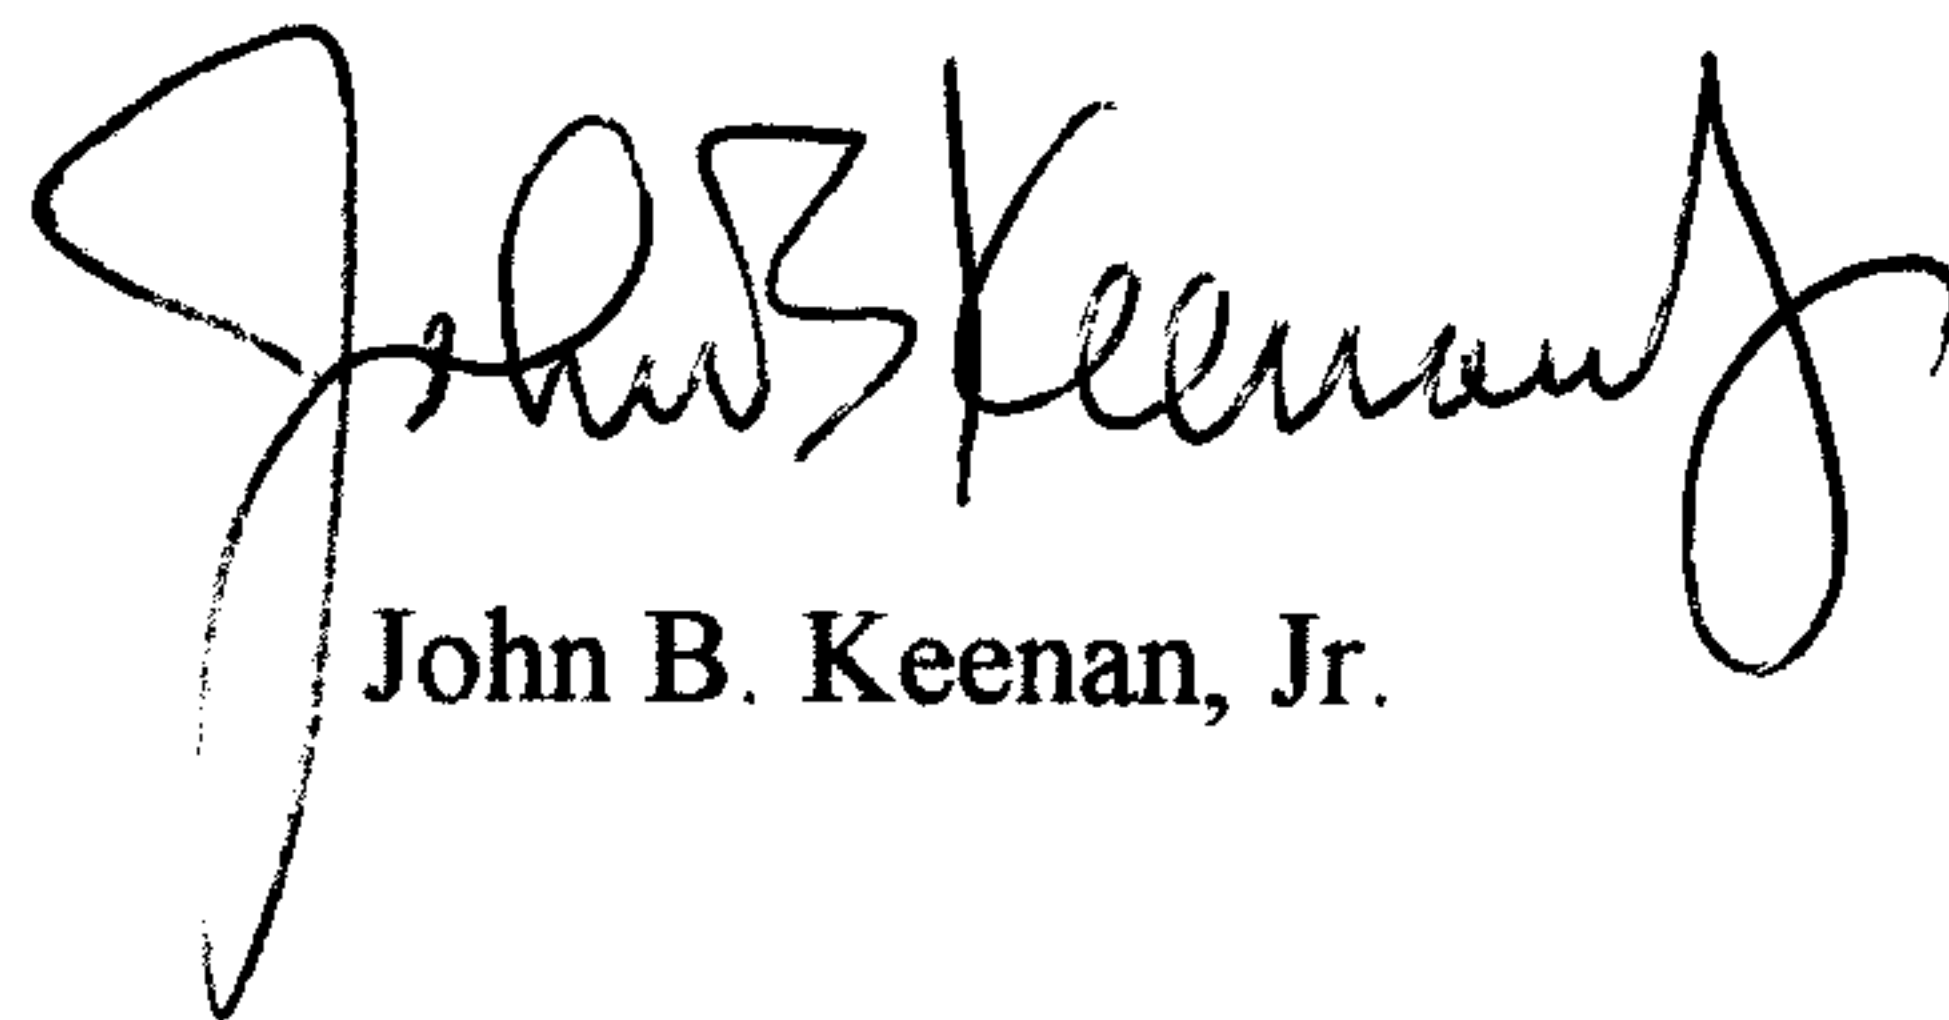

One evening recently I went by Galitoire's and found Gilberto Eyzaguirre was not working. I later learned he had been let go. I understand under less than favorable conditions.

This is sad news. Gilberto is one of the great waiters to work at Galitoire's.

I write to vouch for his character. I have looked forward to dining with you and being served by Gilberto's since 1988. Your reputation has never been tarnished by Gilberto in my eyes. I have always found him to be courteous, professional, and charming with all my friends, family, business associates, and clergy. A gentleman in my eyes.

If there is anyway your decision can be reconsidered, I ask you to do so.

Sincerely,

John B. Keenan, Jr.
